Hi Neil,

(USER)

Following my call just now, I'm working on the annual Homestyle Christmas special – Homestyle At Christmas and if you'd like I can run your 1/4 page advert in Classified on a right hand page for just £200+vat.

Below is a very brief overview to remind you about us and as discussed a link to the online digital version of last years publication because we have run out of copies to post out.

Homestyle At Christmas takes the reader from the very beginnings of their festive preparation right through to the big day with the very best craft ideas, practical advice, places to go with the family eg festivals, simple recipes and gift buying ideas – A perfect platform for them. It's going on sale 28th September and on sale for 3 months! It will be available to buy in all the major supermarkets, WH Smiths, Marks & Spencer and all good independent newsagents and has a circulation of 100k copies.

Homestyle At Christmas

Please do let me know if you'd like to snap up this offer.

Kindest regards as always,
Natasha Jackson
