

CULINARY COTTAGE COOKERY SCHOOL

Learn from the best at Culinary Cottage, a cookery school nestled in the beautiful Brecon Beacons. The school is run by Penny Lewis, a chef who has travelled across the world and even cooked for the Queen! As well as the skills to cook a delicious lunch, dinner and afternoon treat, you'll take away a portfolio of the day's recipes. Four star accommodation is available for those travelling from afar. From £55, theculinarycottage.co.uk

RULE BRITANNIA

Check out the latest fabulous British products and foodie experiences

BOTHAM'S BISCUITS

Whitby-based Botham's has been creating delicious baked goods since 1865, and has now expanded its range to include scrumptious shortbread inspired by those in its famous tea rooms. Neville Botham, grandson of the company's founder, was a great fan of shortbread, and the new Nevilles range is dedicated to him. Available in Orange Zest & Chocolate and Orange Zest & Fruit flavours. £1.30, botham.co.uk

COTTAGE DELIGHT JAM

Family-owned Cottage Delight was established in 1974 when founder Nigel Cope first made his delicious tablet fudge in his family kitchen. Quality and taste remain the essential ingredients for all Cottage Delight recipes, from nostalgic jams and authentic pastas to classic condiments and hand-baked cakes. The classic strawberry jam is still hand-poured, a traditional technique which keeps the strawberries whole.

£3.45, cottedelight.co.uk